

Gerald
Ford

Nixon's Vice President
sworn in after Nixon resigned

"I am not a crook"

Nixon's response to questions about his tax records

Supreme Court

Ordered Nixon to turn over his tapes

Spiro
Agnew

Nixon's Vice President
that resigned

Saturday Night
Massacre

Night when Nixon had Cox fired and others resigned
or got fired

Alexander Butterfield

Stated under oath that Nixon had recorded almost all presidential conversations held

John
Mitchell

One of the
"Plumbers" - He
testified that Nixon
DID NOT know about the coverup

John
Dean

One of the
"Plumbers" - He
testified that Nixon
DID Know about the coverup

John
Sirica

Judge
presiding over the Plumbers'
trials

Woodward
and Bernstein

Journalists who linked Nixon
officials to the bulglary

The Plumbers

A group of men
that burglarized
the DNC and were caught

The President's Men

a small group of trusted and loyal men surrounding Nixon

SALT 1 Treaty

Signed by US and SU to limit missiles to 1972 levels

Soviet Union

Nixon was the first US
president to visit
this country

Detente

Specifically aimed at easing cold war
tensions

Realpolitik

A change from containment that evaluated a nation
based on its power

Kissinger

Helped Nixon develop and carry out his foreign policy

Revenue Sharing

Allowed states to spend Federal money as they chose

OPEC

Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries - Set oil prices and started an oil embargo against the US

Causes of Economic Problems in the 1970s

1. Johnson's deficit spending; 2. Decrease in international trade; 3. Too many people in the workforce; 4. US depended on foreign oil

Stagflation

Economic
condition of rising inflation and rising unemployment

Warren Burger

Conservative
Supreme Court
Justice appointed by Nixon

Southern Strategy

Nixon's attempt to gain support from Southern
conservative
democrats

New Federalism

Nixon's plan to decrease the size of the Federal Government